THE AWARD

Children are a gift from God, and it is our duty to bring them up to know and to love God. The “Building Faith in Youth” Award is designed for Protestant congregations to recognize individuals who have contributed significantly to the children’s and youth ministries of their church through the P.R.A.Y. programs (i.e. God and Me, God and Family, God and Church, and God and Life).

The “Building Faith in Youth” emblem has a shield with a four-colored cross. The four colors converge into a point to create an “X” at the center of the cross. “X” is the first letter in the Greek word for Christ, and it is symbolic of how Christ should be at the center of our lives. The four colors were chosen because they correspond to the four levels in the P.R.A.Y. series, i.e. God and Me (red), God and Family (yellow), God and Church (blue), and God and Life (green). The colors also embody traditional meanings: red (love, the blood of Christ), yellow (sunlight, joy), blue (truth, loyalty), green (new life, growth, revival). The award package includes a medal that can be worn around the neck, a $\frac{3}{4}$ ” lapel pin, and an 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ ” x 11” certificate.

CRITERIA FOR NOMINATION

All nominations must come from the Protestant congregation (self and spouse nominations will not be accepted).

The nominee must:

1. Demonstrate exceptional Christian character and be active in a Protestant congregation.
2. Use the P.R.A.Y. programs (God and Me, God and Family, God and Church, God and Life) to disciple young people and their families and to support the Christian Education program of the local Protestant congregation.
3. Have a continuous record of using and supporting a P.R.A.Y. ministry (i.e. teaching God and Me, God and Family, God and Church, and God and Life) with a minimum tenure of three years.
4. Develop an exceptional program over and above the standard requirements. Some examples are:
 - Utilizing the mentor programs to build up the congregation’s ministry to families
 - Actively recruiting and training adult counselors
 - Providing outreach opportunities to young people in the Boy Scouts of America, Girl Scouts of the U.S.A., American Heritage Girls, and Camp Fire U.S.A.
 - Emphasizing and/or coordinating far reaching service projects for young people beyond the program requirements
