

Prophet Elias Adult Recognition

EASTERN ORTHODOX COMMITTEE ON SCOUTING

"With us everything is secondary compared to our concern with young people and their upbringing in the instruction and teaching of the Lord. After all, what greater work is there than training the mind and forming the habits of the young?"

St. John Chrysostom (+407)

PURPOSE

With these words of St. John Chrysostom as our guide, the Eastern Orthodox Committee on Scouting seek to recognize and honor not only youth members of the three national youth agencies [Scouting America, Girl Scouts of the U.S.A., American Heritage Girls, and Camp Fire USA], but also to recognize outstanding service by adults in the promotion and use of these programs for our Eastern Orthodox young people.

ELIGIBILITY

The Prophet Elias recognition is for both:

1. Actively registered adult lay volunteers for at least 8 years who serve young people in one or more of the three national youth agencies: Scouting America, Girl Scouts of the U.S.A., American Heritage Girls and Camp Fire USA [whether sponsored by Eastern Orthodox Churches or another sponsoring group], and
2. Adult members of other religious bodies who are active registered leaders for at least 8 years of one of the national youth agencies who are performing an exceptional service to Eastern Orthodox young people.

Recognition of an adult in either group is a true recognition of devoted service, not merely an "honor" for someone serving as a leader.

GUIDELINES

1. Actively participates in his/her religious institution and is a member in good standing.
2. Encourages Eastern Orthodox youth to join Scouting or Camp Fire USA. Encourages Orthodox Churches to sponsor Scouting units or Camp Fire USA.
3. Aids Eastern Orthodox Scouts in earning the St. George, Chi-Rho and Alpha Omega awards.
4. Promotes religious observance and participation at Scouting or Camp Fire functions.
5. Is a fully trained Scout or Camp Fire leader.
6. Has organized, promoted, and participated in the appropriate agency Sunday observances.
7. Has promoted service projects and assisted in training and recruiting leaders.
8. Has served Orthodox Scouting or Camp Fire USA for a minimum of 8 registered years.
9. Has given exemplary service to the spiritual, physical, and moral development of Orthodox Youth through service to the church and Scouting America, Girl Scouts, American Heritage Girls, and/or Camp Fire USA.
